The screenshot shows the CalJOBS user interface. At the top left is the CalJOBS logo. Below it are two input fields: "User Name:" and "Password:". To the right of the password field is an eye icon for toggling visibility. Below the input fields is a large orange "Sign In" button. To the right of the input fields is a "WARNING: is not responsible for the accuracy of Google Translate. Use caution when making this selection." and a "Select Language" dropdown menu. Below the "Sign In" button is a blue banner with white text: "If you would like to become a fully registered user with CalJOBS and have access to all of our online services, select one of the following account types. If you are not sure if you need to register on the system, learn more about the benefits of registering on page: Why Register?". Below this banner is a section for "Individual" registration. It features a white person icon on a blue background with the text "13 min(s) estimated". To the right of the icon, the text reads: "Individual Register as this account type if you are an individual and wish to search for the latest job openings, post a résumé online, find career guidance, search for training and education programs, find information on local employers, etc." Below this text is another line: "If you would like to view CalJOBS as a visitor to see what services are available, please click Guest Access." At the bottom right of this section is a large orange "Individual Registration" button.

Once you submit, it will either tell you that it sent you an email with a link to reset your password OR it will tell you that there is some kind of error and that it cannot find an existing account.

If it says error, it is most likely due to the email not matching the one that is in your CaUOBS account. To solve this issue, please visit the nearest job center so that staff can update your information for you. Once they do, you can repeat the retrieving Username/Password process.
